

The Durango Gold's galley features a modern twist on traditional style. While still retaining the familiar welcoming farmhouse atmosphere, KZ has added all stainless-steel appliances and a deep-basin sink in the island. The sink cover is an exact match for the solid-surface countertops, adding form and function to the meal-prep area.

dedicated pantry, the 24-inch oven with a four-burner range, the 30-inch convection microwave, the stainless-steel residential fridge/freezer with ice maker, and, oh yeah, the stainless-steel dishwasher. With all that packed in, you may never want to leave the Durango Gold's kitchen ... but if you do, we have a couple suggestions.

Enjoy family movie night in the living area thanks to the 50-inch smart TV and JBL 2.0 sound bar with Bluetooth connectivity. Or, mom and dad can catch up on today's news with the 32-inch smart TV in the bedroom.

Or, you could all grab a snack and your favorite beverages and head out to enjoy the show Mother Nature directs by lounging on the rear patio ... we're pretty sure that's where you're headed. The Durango Gold G358RPQ also is equipped with six-point auto hydraulic leveling for easy setup. MSRP starts at $107,647. kz-rv.com

KZ DURANGO GOLD

KZ's 50th anniversary celebration kicks off in 2022, but that's not why we selected the 2022 Durango Gold G358RPQ for this roundup: That would be the show-stopping "farmhouse" kitchen-with-a-twist in the sub-37-foot fifth-wheel. New cabinetry is more refined and contemporary than the traditional farmhouse style, while still exuding the warm, cozy, and elegant feel associated with farmhouse design. The deep undermount stainless-steel sink is located in an island configuration, which opens up the kitchen area and expands prep options. Let's not forget the solid-surface countertops, the
